Gary's First Birthday

Gary Herin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Herin, 1229 1/2 Portland, took the spotlight at a gathering last Sunday afternoon to celebrate his first birthday.

Guests gathered in the patio near a table on which was a beautiful chocolate cake decorated with white and centered with one white candle. A floral arrangement from the hosts' garden also decorated the table.

The birthday cake was served with pink lemonade and coffee and young Gary was showered with birthday gifts.

Present for the affair were his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dean, paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Herin, Mr. and Mrs. John Agapito and Debbie Vince, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dean and Jill and Joe.

She's Just 'Grandmother' To Two Forester Children

She may be the first woman senator from Nebraska, she may be on special assignment by the President of the United States, and she may hobnob with all the nation's dignitaries on Capitol Hill, but she is just "grandmother" to James and Ronald Forester of Torrance. She is Mrs. Eva Bowring of Nebraska.

The local boys and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forester, 1416 Fern Ave., have just returned from a visit with Mr. Forester's famous mother at her Bar 99 ranch.

On grandmother's ranch where Ike and Mamie Eisenhower will be guests the latter part of August, the Foresters had the time of their lives especially the young boys, who had the privilege of viewing Mrs. Bowring's picture gallery of 96 senators, cabinet members and ambassadors from all over the world. Her scrap book was a most interesting, filled with congratulations from the President of the United States and senators who commended her on her maiden speech to the senate. She also has, at the ranch, her chair, which she used while in the senate and a wide collection of other interesting mementos. Interesting too is the fact that the Historical Society of Nebraska has already asked Mrs. Bowring for her files.

Mrs. Bowring put aside her political life and became "just grandmother" to accompany the Foresters on their trip to the Black Hills of South Dakota, where the boys saw the first herd of Buffalo and other interesting phases in this Davy Crockett era.

The Foresters also visited Mrs. Forester's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Penn P. Podrea, in Omaha, where they had a family reunion with Mrs. Forester's sister, Mrs. John B. Wangberg and family, of Kansas City, and another sister, Mrs. Nellie B. Krebs and daughters, Mary-nelle and Genevieve, of Omaha.

The local family then drove to Lincoln, Neb., where they visited Mr. Forester's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gary, and his brothers, Harold and Donald Forester and their families. A reunion was held there before the Foresters left for California.

Connie Stout-Donald Forth Wed in Las Vegas July 16

A wedding of interest being announced today by Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Stout, 132 Vista Del Parque is that of their daughter, Connie Phyllis, who was married to Donald Ray Forth, son of Mrs. Ruby Malloy, 2073 Carson Ave. The marriage took place July 16 at 8:30 p.m. in the Little Church Around the Corner in Las Vegas.

The Rev. E. K. Mooney performed the wedding for which the bride wore a light blue silk suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Stout served as her daughter's only attendant and the bride's brother, Larry Stout was the best man.

The bride was a member of this year's graduating class at Torrance High school. She was song queen, member of the Tartar Ladies and president of the Tri-Hi-Y.

The bridegroom was graduated from the local high school in 1954. He was a yell leader and varsity letterman in track, football and basketball.

The newlyweds are now at home at 844 Baro St., Hermosa. A reception to honor the couple will be given Sunday, July 31, at 3 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Torrance. Hosts for the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Stout, parents of the bride, Mrs. Ruby Malloy and Mrs. Joan Posey, mother and sister of the bridegroom.

PTA Activities

Hillside

Wednesday, July 27, the last class in PTA Leadership will be held at Hillside school. The classes have been conducted by Mrs. L. O. Anderson, district legislation chairman, assisted by Mrs. Grace Wright, council president. Subjects covered during the past three weeks by those attending have been ethics of money raising, leadership of local units, committees, membership and courtesy. The average attendance has been 20 with a number being eligible for a certificate at the conclusion of the course. Refreshments will be served following the last class next Wednesday.

The next Hillside PTA board meeting will be held on August 4, at which time plans for a fall carnival will be made. The budget and program will be presented and officers and chairman will be asked to explain their duties for the coming year. This will be an evening meeting and exact time and location will be announced later.

Monday, July 18, final plans for the program for next year's meetings were completed. The committee met at the home of Mrs. Robert Schiffler and those attending included Mrs. Richard Heilmeyer, Mrs. W. E. Inman, and Mrs. Robert Vander Meid.

Haldale

A summer treat is being planned by some of the Haldale PTA members for the youngsters which have been participating in the recreational activities, which are being held at the school grounds.

Those assisting with refreshments will be: Mrs. David Goolsby, president; Mrs. Ray Rhoads, first vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Earl Malone and Mrs. G. Winters, refreshment chairman, and Mrs. W. H. McGuire, recreation chairman.

The treat will be held on July 28, said Mrs. Goolsby.

The next board meeting will be held at the Torrance Park on Friday, August 19, it was announced by Mrs. David Goolsby, president of Haldale Avenue School PTA.

Ratification of newly appointed chairmen will take place. And a potluck luncheon is on the agenda.

Highlighting the meeting will be the presentation of the coming year's program. The function will also be a get-acquainted gathering for the new board members. Children of board members are also invited.
